

Diversity in Cycling | Finding Your Bike Community Webinar

Oct. 14, 2021

CHAT LOG

Important Note: The full chat log from the webinar is not included but important links that were shared via chat messages by webinar attendees are listed below.

Itza Salazar: Triangle Bikeworks

- Website: <https://www.trianglebikeworks.org/>
- Youth Interest Form:
<https://trianglebikeworks.app.neoncrm.com/np/clients/trianglebikeworks/eventRegistration.jsp?event=14&>
- Volunteer packet:
<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1V15numRGvmTrFpIMPMU5c5C8in1oNbWI/view>
- Bikes, Water & Soul video: spokenrev.org/minidoc

Heidi P: <http://www.bikewalknc.org/nc-bikewalk-summit/>

Heidi P: NC Bike Laws translated can be found at: <https://bikecarrboro.org/nc-bike-laws/>

John T: Bike Durham: <https://bikedurham.org/mabc-21>

In response to finding discount bikes:

- Demar B: You can check the NC State Surplus Sales: <https://procurement.ofa.ncsu.edu/our-services/surplus/surplus-sales/>
- Heidi P: If you are in Chapel Hill, go to the ReCyclery or look on Craigslist; if in Durham, the Durham Co-op
- John T: <https://www.durhambikecoop.org>
- Amanda Simmons: Stay tuned to UNC's website for the 2022 bike auction which is typically held during the first two weeks of September: <https://move.unc.edu/bike/bike-auction>

Heidi P: Also, I would like to give a shout out for Chapel Hill's Special Olympics cycling program if you have a special needs rider in your household:

<https://www.townofchapelhill.org/government/departments-services/parks-and-recreation/recreation/special-olympics>

Paul S: If you are interested in learning more about cycling groups in the triangle or if you're a cycling group that would like to connect with cyclists, be sure to visit: <http://www.trianglebikegroups.com/>